Who Are We?

The Chartered Institute of Logistics and Transport in the UK is the only professional body for organisations involved in the movement of goods and people, and their associated supply chain networks.

For over 100 years, we've supported organisations, across a range of industries, to drive their logistics, transport, and supply chain workforces and operations.

Our mission is to 'professionalise the profession', strengthening the future capability of logistics, transport and supply chain operations.

“

“Our first year partnering with CILT has been incredibly valuable. Featuring the CILT Company Partner logo in our event artwork and other marketing materials has helped us demonstrate credibility and trust when speaking with international businesses”

“The association with such a respected professional body reinforces our expertise and opens doors to conversations that might otherwise be harder to start.”

A photograph of a diverse group of business people in an office environment. In the foreground, a man with dark hair and a beard, wearing a grey suit, is smiling broadly. Next to him, a woman with curly hair, wearing a white blouse, is also smiling. Other people are visible in the background, some partially obscured. The overall atmosphere is professional and positive.
